
Arsenal vs Newcastle

Here we go, the start of the mickey mouse cup.

The keys will be raring to start and i hope wenger gives Bendtner more playing time. The kid is good. He just needs games.

The rest of the usual suspects should play. Players like Song, Walcott, Diaby, Eboue plus a few younger ones and a few old ones. New player Diarra should also be given more playing time to get used to the Arsenal way of playing.

Fabianski is also slated to start in place of Alumina and I hope the kid can show his potential.

Newcastle is raring to go after their impressive 3-1 victory in the weekend.

All said, this being the mickey mouse cup, I still hope we go a long way so that the kids can play. In the end, if we win the cup, it is still a cup win.. No matter what people say and it is still prized as a way to europe for many other clubs.

Go Junior Gunners!

Today our young players or some new players can show us how good they are. Song is good player, Walcott is also excellent player, Diaby shows his talent in the game against Derby, Eboue is also very good, I'm very happy that Diarra wil play and maybe Eduardo will be playing. There is also young goalkeeper Fabianski and young striker Bendtner and they can show their class. GO GUNNERS!!!

If somebody have the link of the game between Arsenal and Derby (just goals) can you write it down, please. ;D

Wenger had this to say of their performance:

On new players in new positions...

"It's not a coincidence that I play Song at centre-back because he's got all the ingredients to play in there, Fabianski will be a great keeper and Diarra for his first game has done well. I think Bendtner tonight was top quality as well - he's nineteen years of age! His presence in the game was great. We have a small group but of very good quality, and very young."

On their readiness for the first team...

"All of them, for me all of them can play on a regular basis in the first team. You see a player like Armand Traore, he's eighteen! Just at left-back, the power, going forward, the crosses."

Its cool that the youngsters get a run out.

Hopefully this means by the time they are 22 or 23, all will be experienced EPL players.

Cheers.....
