Arsenal vs Tottenham

Tomorrow we will face our arch enemy at the Emirates stadium in the Carling Cup semi-final first leg.

For the 2nd year running, we will face them in the Carling cup. Pascal Chimbonda has already cried for revenge after his lousy team lost to our YOUNG GUNS.

Fabianski is also determined to impressed. He added, "I was told that if you save a penalty against Tottenham then you are the biggest man in the world." Not that we would like to concede any penalties but it is just a show of how important this match is to gunner's fans.

My prediction: The kids to play and win 2-0.

Well, the kids played. Only RVP is the recognizable player to participate from the start. 1-1 draw against the spur's first team is a slight disappointment but take nothing away from this promising batch of gunners

Go Gunners!

I'm satisfied with this result. We still can go to final. RVP wasn't playing so good but that was his first game in a long time after bad injury. Dudu assist for goal and Walcott scored. And I hope that Walcott injury is not serious. Go Gunners!!

Bad news is RVP pick up a slight injury from the match. Hope it is not too serious.

The defenders did nt have a good game. especially Sendereos.
