
Fabianski and Manninger

When we lost to Chelski 0-5 at home some years ago, Alex Manninger was in goal for us. After that game, he was never the same keeper as before. It took him many years before he could recovered from that shock and finally challenged for a place in the Austria national team now.

Now, Fabianski was in goal when we lost 5-1 to those pesky spum. Will he recover from this scare? I worry for him. Hope he is made of stronger steel than Manninger.
