
Preview of Day10: Germany is for 2nd place???

Although Germany will win, it's almost sure that they have to be satisfied with 2nd place...
Germany Vs Austria

It's an easy match for Germany..
W've to wait how many goals Germans will score.
if Austria wins, they can get hope for quarterfinals, but it's just a dream
My prediction: Austria 0-4 Germany

Poland Vs Croatia

Will Hopeless Poland try for a point..??
I think Croatia will win...about 1-0 or 2-0..

Wow. A 4-0 prediction? Austria is the host country. I think a 4-0 loss will be too much of an insult to their fans.
Croatia is resting several first team players like Modric and Simic. They may not be able to win this time round.
My Prediction: 3-1 to Germany and 1-1 for Croatia

4-0 is a big margin but if Austria ended up turning the heat in the deep second half like Turks against Czech, we'll be ended with our mouth wide open again!!hahaha..

1-0 in both matches. Tense affair but nothing very exciting.

For the moment, I rate holland as the most consistent team in this tournament.
