
The Semi-Finalists of Euro 2008

There you have it: Germany, Turkey, Russia and Spain. The 4 semi-finalists for Euro 2008. Pick your winner!

Germany takes on Turkey on 25th June and Spain takes on Russia on 26th June. The winners will meet in the final on the 29th of June.

It promises to be a cracker of a week with 3 of the 4 teams having tasted defeat, but return with a greater determination to beat out the rest of the oppositions. The last undefeated team of Spain has endured many years of being labelled 'chokers' and they are also determined to shed off this tag.

Well, may the best team wins!
