Well done, Xavi. (though my vote goes to Fabregas)

Xavi is better than senna.He's more hardworking and moves better than senna.I don't see senna contributes that a lot than Xavi.

After all, it's only my opinion..

I will choose Torres. He made the crucial difference in the finals and some games along the way.

Wish Wenger had signed him last time. Well, lets hope we get Villa this time.
