Burnley vs Arsenal

The FA Cup Third Round started today and what a BIG Banana skin it was.....

Before we play Burnley at Turf Moor tomorrow, Bolton, Blackburn, Birmingham and Everton are already out.

Which Arsenal team will appear in the FA cup? To me, Wenger still values this cup and hence, many of the first team should be involved. As this will be the last game before Toure, Eboue and Song departs for the African cup, I am very sure they will start in this game.

In the event that some youngsters might be involved, have no fear as they are a really talented bunch and will strike fear into the hearts of any opposition.

Go Gunners!

Prediction: 4-0 to Arsenal!

hitman, you are spot on. 2-0 to us. Dudu and big ben scored.

A difficult win. Burnley was full of inspiration and running. even when they were 1 man down, they were still attacking us like their life depended on it. Well done, Burnley.

Good JOB gunners!
We march on!!

I watched the game. Dudu and Bendtner scored. Both goals were beautiful. Burnley play good in this match. They had lot of chances but we win! Go Gunners!!!
