Manchester United will play Arsenal in a mouth-watering FA Cup fifth round tie. The Premier League's big two will go head-to-head at Old Trafford for a place in the quarter finals of the world's most famous cup competition.

Liverpool, who overcame Havant and Waterlooville in the previous round, will face Barnsley at Anfield, while holders Chelsea play host to Birmingham City's conquerors Huddersfield Town.

What luck! Anyway, if we have to beat them again, lets beat them again.

But it is going to be tough since the tie is at Old Toilet.

Come on, Gunners!
