
FA Cup Draw

We have drawn against Stoke or Newcastle and will be at home at the Emirates stadium. Not too bad a draw. :)

Spurs or Reading will face manure at Old Trafford so that will mean the end of them.

Double good news... :)

yah, good draw.

But which do you like more? Man U winning or Spurs (if they overcome Reading)winning?

It will be fun to watch both go at each other.

as much as i hate spurs, i will prefer spurs to kick man u out.

yes, Manchester U its the most difficult rival i think, so if they kick out is very good for Arsenal. spurs is more easy if in a future they play with Arsenal.

Do you think New will lose to Stoke now that they are rudder-less? Stoke was playing very well against newcastle.
