hi Coolman!!!

In some forums, i've seen that they show who is online below the forum home page..
so i suggest you that it'll be better if our forum also has this...

Hi LittleTT,

Thanks for your suggestion.

We used to have that but for some reason, it was slowing the forum down considerably.

After weighing the pros and cons of having it, we decided that speed is more important for our users.

So sorry we can't bring the stats in at this moment.

However, you would be able to see whether someone is online or offline if you look at the icon just below his avatar.
