
Hleb signs for Barcelona

Hleb has signed for Barcelona for a fee of 11.9m pounds. We bought him 3 years ago for a fee of 11.3 m. So that is a small profit of 0.6m. Not much to go with.....

I thgt he would at least be worth 15 mil. Looks like i overestimate the worth of twinkle toes.

Well, at least something is confirmed. Now, Adebayor. can you please make up your mind?

Not a good bye, Hleb...and i don't feel sad about his departure, unlike Gilberto... now i think wenger should give Gallas his old number 13...

yes..it's time for gallas to go down to No.13 or lower!!

No.10 should given for Strikers instead to defenders..this is funny from wenger as wenger choose No.10 for gallas.Maybe because both are french!!!

ALEX HLEB admitted it is a dream to complete his £15million switch to Barcelona. The Arsenal star had his medical with the Spanish giants today as he completes his Emirates exit.

The Belarus forward has finally been granted his wish to leave the Gunners after failing to settle in London.

Hleb, 27, said: "It is a dream. I love this team. I will give my best.

"I have spoken with Barcelona coach Pep Guardiola and for me it is very important that he wants me and I will give my best for the team and I want to win everything with Barca."

Hleb is the latest name to leave Arsenal, who have also lost Mathieu Flamini to AC Milan and Gilberto Silva to Panathinaikos.
