Any news on who will play?

And yesterday Nasri limped out of training, any further news on whether he will be fit for Friday night in Amsterdam?

our second strings could do it..we don't miss nasri that much but we miss fabregas on the pitch so much.We miss his vision and his deadly passing.

the kids will face huddersfield today. Although it seems to be an insult to the english side, we have no choice because we have a tournament to play at Ajax.

well, the modern nature of football.

Huddersfield 1
Berrett 75

Arsenal 2
Watt 79, Barazite 87

Wenger used most of the reserve players(exept Vela, Ramsey and Walcott)...I hope I will see Fabregas at Amsterdam Tournament.

Yeah..the reserves are extremely young.We could match the physique of Huddersfield players but still we beat them.
