I dont know. Maybe Toure because he is at Arsenal longer and know Arsenal team more and he is friendlier with other teammates than Gallas. But if Wenger will take captain armband from Gallas this wont be good for him and whole team.

Gallas is going to be captain. FULLSTOP.
I think we cannot change this fact anymore.

I prefer Toure but maybe its better for the whole team to have Gallas shouting at them. Play with emotion and passion!

Well, wenger prefer french to be captain more likely even that guy can go down crying with full emotions.He indeed play with emotion and passion and I bet his team-mates will support him by crying together when next time he pull that stunt again!
real gunners don't cry!!! real gunners stay firm and fight till the end!!!
