
Beta Testers Required for MatesOdds.com

Posted by mickn88 - 2008/01/08 18:06

Hi All,

I am looking for beta testers for a site we are launching called www.matesodds.com. It is a site that allows friends to bet with each other. It will also allow members of the forum to place and record bets with each other. No money passes through the site, and it is completely free to use.

To be the the first to know, go to www.matesodds.com to sign-up.

I look forward to your response.

Many Thanks

Michael

Hi Mickn88,

Is it gambling? or for fun?
Do we win real money?

Hi Fab,

It is a site for capturing all of those informal bets you make with your mates. It is for real money, but all payments can be made through paypal. You will be able to see which one of your mates you lose money to over the year, and who is the "easy money" of your friend/forum group. You can set your market as well as your price. You can even get a bet going on your local Sunday League game!

We don't charge any commission and the site is 100% free to use.

We hope everybody enjoys it, and your feedback will be appreciated. We should be able to give you guys access to it by mid next week.

Many Thanks

Mike
