
Samir Nasri

Posted by Coolman!!! - 2008/05/21 06:36

Samir Nasri is on the verge of signing for Arsenal after arriving in London.

Wenger has time and time again insisted that big players will be sought after ahead of big names. Nasri is somewhat a combination of both.

Though he may not be a household name yet, his association with Zidane in itself has sent his market value sky-rocketing. La Provence contends that Arsenal may have to shell out €17 million (which comes to approximately £13.5 million) to capture the player.

Arsenal were prepared to pay £10m initially, and have since improved their offer. Though it has not been accepted, an agreement is said to be close.

Is he worth that much?

:unsure:

in french papers, most of them connected him to new zidane and in UK here the papers put him similar to Hleb..but samir's more direct approach on goals could add more bite upfront.. currently the deal on table is 11.9mil...wenger will get him for sure!!!

Great signing!! But I hope Wenger is not done yet...

I hope he will sign Hatem Ben Arfa as well. (I hope we can get 20 million out of Hleb as today Real Madrid also showed their interest, and use the money to buy Hatem Ben Arfa) if we can sign French talent of the years 2007 (Samir Nasri) and 2008 (Hatem Ben Arfa) it would be a dream come true!

The cherry on the cake would be if Wenger can manage to buy Miguel Veloso for a fee around 20 million and Lillian Thuram on a free transfer.

sounds good ha?!!

Hi, I'm a Marseille fan, for Samir we are sad but the last year he wasn't not a genius (injury, seek...).

First, Samir Nasri isn't the new Zidane, news papers said that cause (zidane and nasri) both are from Marseille, ZZ and nasri are 10 miedfielder, ZZ and Nasri are arabian origins..

Yes, Nasri was the greatest hope but Ribery is really better and this year Valbuena was better than nasri.

Nasri: positive:

- He is good with his left and right foot. (note: he is right)
- He has a good protection ball
- He has an excellent vision (eye for the pass).
- he is good in "drible" to eliminate his oppponent.

negative:

- he is not physically strong (maybe you can like Adebayor give some creatine to give 10 kgs of muscle)
- he shoot isn't strong, always it's easy for the goal to stop the shoot of nasri.
- he will slow your speed of your team.
- Now the poor: it's difficult to be sure, because may be it's a long time he 's thinked to leave Marseille, He plays only 20 or 30 minutes by match (like hollowman) he has a lot of difficulties to play his skills all time of the match.

He's young for you, I hope you make him progress in this negative point because he have great skill.

Hi oMarseille, Thank you for all the info on Nasir.

I believe Wenger will make him a better player. All players who come to Arsenal become much better. I hope he will become a key player for us in the near future.

Seems like deal is not done yet.

All the different newspapers are given crazy stories. The Daily Mail came up with the believable report that Arsenal had made contact with Marseilles but not yet agreed a fee.

The Guardian upped the stakes, claiming that a bid had been lodged with Marseilles. The boys in The Telegraph newsroom were not going to be outdone and went as far as Nasri undergoing a medical and throwing in an element of doubt with the 'news' that the player had suffered from viral meningitis last year.

So what is done and what is not done? We, the loyal Arsenal fans, lie in wait....

which club doesnt want to include hatem ben arfa?

it'll be great to see arfa at arsenal next season..a player like him not only has the pace but he loves going forward to score..

the budget is real tight for wenger and we have to wait and see..

Thats it Sameer Nasri is coming.....
I like to see Mrlyn James.....young talented striker from Kedah and Muhammad Zidane in arsenal

But wenger's choice is better than me.....like no one is thinking about Sameer Nasri

And I like Wenger's saying we need big player not big name

I agree with you but sometimes the young players who always to be good have no experience and is what our young players miss.

So did he signed or not? so confusing...

Manure has their eyes or micah richards now and chelsea is on Etoo.

So lets wrap up this signing in case any big money ass take the sweet from our mouth.
